In 1875 a young man traveling on the Vint Shinkle lost $3 at a quiet game of poker. The winner refusing to refund the money, the loser complained to the boat's money, the loser complained to the boat's officers, whose sympathy for him was found to be lacking. At Hawesville he went to the authorities, and Captain James Kenniston, who was supposed to be in command of the boat, was indicted for permitting gambling. It happened, however, that Captain Kenniston was not on the boat, and consequently he paid no attention to the papers served on him. The authorities, however, tried the case, and fined him $200, which the governor of Kentucky promptly remitted upon being made aware of the circumstances. Someone, it seems, has trumped up this old case one, it seems, has trumped up this old case against "Old Tubular" for purposes un

We have said a good deal lately about the PURITY of our cigarettes and all that we have said about them is equally true of the Long Cut. The Leaf Tobacco from which Blackwell's Durham Long Cut is manufactured, possesses a very desirable feature that no other tobacco can lay claim to, viz: the almost total absence of Nitrates and Nicotine.

Step into your dealers' and ask for a package of Blackwell's Durham Long Cut and see if it isn't just what you have been longing for. Don't be imposed on by imitations. Get the genuine.
